MEMSIC BREAKS ARM IN POWELL FIGHT

Vernon Arena, Cal. May 23 .- At the close of the fourth round Lew Pewell, of San Francisco, stopped a right swing with his elbow, breaking the arm of George Memsic, of Los Angeles, in a fight here Saturday. Examination made in Memsic's corner showed a fracture of the right arm between the wrist and the elbow, and referee Eyton awarded the fight to the San Francisco fighter.

The four rounds were even and gave promise of interesting milling. Memsic scored a clean knockout in the first 30 seconds of fighting and drew first blood a little later when he rapped Powell on the lips. In the next three rounds Powell imbbed the local man frequently with his left and had the blood flowing from his nose. Memsic showed great improvement in boxing ability over his last meeting with Powell. They met
